Have you ever pictured yourself working for a technology company on the cutting edge of the communication and entertainment industry? How about a company that lives the values of balance, integrity, accountability and a positive 'can do' attitude? If you have, now is the time to consider a career with Shaw.

Shaw's culture stems from a history of innovation. Family owned and operated for four decades, Shaw has grown to over 8500 employees providing exceptional phone, internet and video experience from Nanaimo to Sault Ste Marie. Developing new technology has long been the key to our success and growth.

"Shaw is a technology company," explains Tony Rizzuti, IT director. "Technology is not a support function - it directly contributes to our growth." Leveraging Agile Development principles, Shaw IT employees work on real time virtual teams both within the company and with vendors. This system of streaming projects side by side allows us to increase delivery capabilities and, most importantly, improve the customer experience.

"With over 20 years as an infrastructure and systems specialist, I thought I knew what 'complex' meant until I joined Shaw," says
